I am a handweaver using my father's traditional loom.
The craft's of spinning and weaving have beem in my family for generations.

My products are made from 100% wool which is spun and dyed locally in Donegal Yarns in the neighbouring village of Kilcar.

I draw my inspiration from the colours and textures of the rugged and beautiful landscape which surrounds me.

My products are available at my studio in Carrick, "Viewing by appointment only" F94 X7W1
