JAMES NOMINATED FOR COUNCIL SEAT

It was the 'battle of the locals' at the Fianna Fail convention in Dunkineely recently when delegates from local Fianna Fail Cumanns in South Donegal gathered to nominate a candidate to fill the County Council seat vacated by Brendan Murrin. Mr. Murrin was appointed County Registrar and relinquished his Council seat thus necessitating a new appointment.

There were two candidates from the Fianna Fail Party in the area - Padraig McGinley of the Harbour Bar, Killybegs who is a native of Meenacharvy and James Mc Brearty of Bogagh. James came out on top at the convention and so goes forward for nomination on to the Council.

James has been an active member of the Fianna Fail Party in the area over the years and is involved on many local voluntary bodies such as the St. Vincent de Paul Society and the Carrick Development Committee. He is Principal in Derrylahan National School. We wish Jimmy the best of luck and hope he gets the opportunity to put his undoubted talents into action at County Council level for the people of South Donegal.

The nomination will go forward to the Council members who must approve the nomination.

The Unislim Club at Carrick has been disbanded owing to lack of support. There were not enough new members to make the class viable, said the class instructress Mrs. Eileen Molloy.

Houses in Upper Carrick were without water for some time a week ago when the water pipe burst. The pipe had been leaking for some time. One householder felt that the reason for the break was the roadworks which were carried on at the small road when a steamroller was used on the new surface.

Welcome home to Tom Carr of Main Street, Carrick who returned from hospital without any major surgery. We hope Tom is recovering well.

COISTE FORBARTHA NA CARRAIGE

A meeting of Carrick Development Committee was held in the Vocational School, Carrick on the first Tuesday in October.

The secretary read a letter which she had written to Mr. Jim White, T.D. expressing concern about the hold-up in the new buildings for Carrick Vocational School. The letter was approved by the committee.

In the matter of the community centre proposed for the Line Road, Carrick it was decided to apply to the County Council for planning permission for the site.

An interim report was given on the finances of the Carnival and the profit estimate at that point with some bills outstanding was about £2,000.

There was a long discussion on the upcoming elections for a new committee which are due to take place in November/December. Some alternatives were suggested like having smaller committees for each area like Meenaneary, Teelin etc. and having a small committee for Carrick village. The general feeling of the committee was, however, that there should be a certain number of delegates elected from each district to a central committee.

It was felt that the committee's image needed to be projected properly in the community. The idea was expressed that people regarded the committee as not being very important and achieving very little. On the contrary, the secretary pointed out that the committee did some very important work, a case in point being a visit she received from Board of Works personnel some time ago who wished to examine Aghera Pier and who had the committee's letter on that subject with them. It was decided to elect a P.R.O. for the committee and Francis Walsh was appointed.

The question of piped T.V. was brought up and it was decided to leave the question until the results of some tests were known.

The following Saturday was set aside for the dismantling and storing of the Marquee in Carrick and the Glen Football Club and Meenaneary Community Committee were to be contacted to help out as they had promised when they had received the use of the marquee during the summer.

The committee passed a vote of thanks to the Carrick Sportsground Committee, their partner in the running of the Carnival who had voted that all the proceeds of the Carnival should go to the Development Committee.

A vote of sympathy was extended to Jimmy Enright, a committee member whose son, Jimmy died recently.

Gaeltarra Eireann, Kilcar made a presentation to St. Columba's Football Club recently to mark their winning of the County Championship. Lengths of tweed were presented to the successful players and mentors.

Congratulations to Willie and Brid McGuinness of Dublin and Teelin Road who have become grandparents. A baby girl was born to Maura and Paul early in September.

Michael Boyle

In a year which has seen the deaths of former classmates Paul Dunleavy, Frank McNelis, Padraig Byrne and colleague Michael Byrne; it is rather frightening to have to record the death of yet another schoolmate and dear friend.

Michael Boyle, after a brilliant scholastic career in St. Eunan's College qualified as a civil engineer in Galway University. He has spread his talents as an engineer as far away as Iraq in highway construction, and since his return to Ireland has been assistant County Engineer in Buncrana and Lifford. He was in failing health over the past few years but his recent sudden death stunned the entire area.

Dear, gentle, lovable Michael - brilliant conversationalist, shy, witty, fun-loving but always the perfect gentleman. He will be sadly missed by his many friends.

My lasting memory of Michael will be, when with heaving shoulders, clucking silently, he related the story of the serious German engineer colleague on leave in a hostelry in Baghdad who, amid their revelry asked: 'vat ve do vith de cracks concrete', was promptly told - "send for John the Miner".

We looked forward to your week-end visits - you generated a warmth and friendship in any company. To your brother Con, your dear Aunt Kitty and to all your family we offer our sincerest sympathy.

Go ndéana Dia trócaire ar d'anam uasal.

FURTHER EDUCATION

It was back to school for some of the students from the area who had finished their Leaving Certificate Examination. Some had the envious job of choosing between different Colleges of Higher Education.

*It's a first for Barry McNeilis of the Line Road Carrick who is the first student from the local Vocational School or indeed even from the area to take a course in Thomond College of Physical Education.

*Eunan Cunningham of Teelin Road, Carrick who obtained a call to National Teaching instead entered Trinity College to study Engineering and Economics.

*Another student Trinity-bound is Anne Gormley who will study languages at the College.

*There will be a good local representation at Trinity as Hugh O'Donnell of Stranakirka is also attending the College this year to study business studies. Hugh spent a year working with Donegal County Council in Lifford last year.

*Margaret Sweeney and brother John have headed west to Galway University to study Commerce. Margaret had been called to Teacher Training but chose University, instead. Sister Bridie was also called to Galway University but decided to return to the Tech for another year.

*Muala Gillespie of Kilcar joins the swelling number of students from the area to enter St. Patrick's Training College - her father's alma mater?

*Another past-pupil of Carrick school who has gone to University is Francis O'Rourke of Killybegs who is attending Maynooth University.

*Eileen O'Donnell of Kilcar has departed for Carysfort Training College.

*Joining Eileen in Carysfort are Frances and Anne Cunningham of Malinbeg. Anne has changed from her University course to take up National Teaching which will mean, when the two girls graduate that there will be four National Teachers in this remarkable family.

*Ursula Doherty of Carrick Road Kilcar has been called to train as a nurse in St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin. Ursula will go for her training in the New year.

*Congratulations to Brenda Cunningham of Carrick who has taken up a job as secretary with the Donegal Fish Company in Killybegs.

*Oliver Gara of Muckcross has gone to work with a bank in England.

Get well wishes are extended to Alain Dulan of Teelin Road, Carrick who had an accident on his motor bike in Teelin recently. Alain moved into the chalet on the Teelin Road a few weeks ago. His daughters who were with him at the time of the accident were unhurt.

T.V. CHANGE

There has been some excited talk of the change by BBC and UTV to a new transmitter at Enniskillen and the possibilities of obtaining BBC 1, BBC 2 and UTV programmes in colour.

The new transmitter is at Brogher Mountain in Enniskillen and is transmitting to a radius of 20 miles in UHF. This type of transmission is 'line of sight' and with the mountains between us and Enniskillen our chances of receiving any type of strong signal are not good. And so it has proved. Some testing done in the area has not been very positive with the exception of Lurgan where a perfect signal has been obtained. Reasonable reception is also available in some areas of Teelin where some people are presently enjoying their five stations.

Kilcar have been investigating the possibilities of a communal aerial and piped television. A meeting has been held and a survey is presently in progress with the view of finding out how many people would be interested in taking the programmes and joining in the scheme.

There has been no movement in Carrick as of yet to form a group to set up piped television, co-operative.

CLUICHE CEANNAIS : Dé Domhnaigh 3u MEÁN FOMHAIR 1978.

Naomh Adhamhnan, Leitirceannain	3 - 5
Naomh Columba	1 - 8

Is dóigh gur 'mí-ádh' an cur síos is fóirstiní ar an chaill seo do Naomh Cholumba. Ar an taobh eile den scéal, níl aon amhras ná gur chuir éifeacht agus ceiliúradh, bua an domhnach roimhe sin isteach orthu - mar adeir an seanfhocal: "Baineann an fhaichill ceann den namhaid." Is dóigh go ndearna síod feillí an fhaichill riachtanach a chur i gcrích - d'fhág seo iad sa chath gan cúl gear de na himreoirí is fearr acu. Mar sin féin bhí an cluiche ar fheabhas agus iontach suimiúil. B'é Peadar Mac Giolla Easpaic, Cathaoirleach Craobh Chleann Cholm Cille de Chumann na nUaigheanna Naisiúnta a bhronn an corn ar chaptaen fhoireann Naomh Adhamhnan. Chuir se fáilte roimh na fóirne agus thug buíochas do mhuintir Leitirceannain as ucht a dteacht an aistir fhada. Rinne sé comghairdeachas, fosta, le foireann Naomh Cholumba a bhain craobh sinnsear Chontae Dhún na nGall don chéad uair ariamh. "Is cúis mhór-bhróide é dúinn go lair", adúirt sé. Níl aon chorn eile i gcomórtais Peil Gaelach in iomlán Thír Chonaill ag onórú laochra de Chogadh na Saoirse ach an corn seo...

This Cup was presented to the Glencolumbkille Branch of the National Graves Association by the Derry Journal Ltd. One of the conditions stipulated was, that half of the gate receipts of the final would go towards the tending, the care and protection of the monument erected to perpetuate the memory of Comdt. Donnchadh Mac Niallais, Oglagh na Heireann, and honour his services to the cause of Irish freedom. Comdt. Mac Niallais served in Cork and Donegal during the entire period of the struggle. As a matter of interest he dodged the British hangman and his rope by escaping from Cork gaol on the 11th November 1918 - Armistice Day.

The first two teams to compete for the Mac Niallais Memorial Cup were Sean Mac Cumhailis, the then County Champions and Kilcar. There was no senior team in Glencolumbkille Parish at that time. The game was played on Sunday August 2nd 1964 and Kilcar won the cup. This annual game with the County Champions is now a standard fixture on the County Board programme since the Divisional Boards ceased to function. Thanks are due to the County Board official, Francis Cunningham, O.S., whose efforts made it possible for us to have this annual game with the current champions of Tir Chonaill.

- SEAN O HEINNE.

Get well wishes are extended to Thomas Mc Shane of Teclinn who is recovering from an operation he had in Letterkenny hospital.

Well under way now in Upper Carrick is the new house of Bernie and Evelyn McHells of The Line Road.

Sean and Kay Burke of Upper Carrick have moved in to the new house which they built immediately behind their old house.

MACRA notes

NEW YEAR

The Carrick Macra na Tuaithe Club got under way last month for another year. The Club has been very successful over the past few years with many of the members attending training courses and winning an award for the production of AN LIAG.

NEW OFFICERS

At the first meeting new club officers for the year 1978/79 were elected. They were:

CHAIRMAN: Gary Breslin
VICE-CHAIR.: Francie

Doogan
SECRETARY: Deirdre

Cunningham
TREASURER: Michael

Galligan.
P.R.O.: Gerry

Cunningham.
At the first meeting the Chairman thanked the outgoing officers for their good work and service to the club.

PROGRAMME

The club members discussed

some ideas for activities during the year. Among the ideas were: Music, photography, crafts and soft toys and building dances.

ADVENTURE PLAYGROUND

An adventure playground was suggested by the Club Chairman, Gary Breslin as the club project for the year. A plot of ground has been rented by the club from Sean Burke in Upper Carrick. Already the members have started to clear the site. £100 has been granted to the club to purchase equipment by the Carrick Development Committee. It is hoped that the parents of the young children who will use the playground will join in the effort.

FIRST AID PROJECT

Jim Cunningham of Carrick has joined the club as a leader this year to give the members ideas on first aid. His first talk and demonstration was on blood and cuts.

Welcome home to Shelia Boyle of Main Street, Carrick who was on a visit to her daughter Sheila in London, recently.

Recently on holiday in the U.S.A. were Phelim and Monica Browne. We hope they had an enjoyable time.

On holiday in the Far East during the summer period was Teresa Breslin N.T. of Upper Carrick.

A bookshop in Monaghan provides a novel service which should be aboon to parents and others faced every Christmas and birthday time with the problem of finding a suitable present for children of all ages. The bookshop runs a mail order service which enables people to get first rate books easily. Not only will you receive a very speedy book order by return of post but by giving the age (and interests if possible) of the child and about how much you wish to spend you can rest assured that the child will be delighted with a book of high quality suitable to his age and interests. Kay & Vincent Macklin know about books - they have seven children of their own who read a lot. Their shop is The Bookworm, Park St., Monaghan.

NEW SCHOOL BOARD

Elections were held for the primary school boards in the area recently. The parents' representatives in Carrick are Maire Keaney of the Cottages and Rita Cunningham of Upper Carrick.

In Kilcar the parents decided to leave the present school board in office until the new school is ready about Easter, next year.

The school boards are a matter of dispute at present between the Department of Education and the teachers' union the I.M.T.O. The matter is not yet decided as to whether teachers will be allowed to work with the boards as they are presently structured.

Night Classes have begun again in the Vocational School, Carrick. This year there are some additions to the usual ones of former years. Attracting a lot of attention is a class in basic electronics which is being conducted by Gordon Thurston of the Teelin Road. Gordon is an electronics engineer who worked with Decca Navigation and now is employed by Marine Electrics, Killybegs. Other classes are given in French, Woodwork and for students of the School there are evening classes in Music. Boat-building classes are taking place in Cashel this year.

DARTS

The Northwestern Darts League got under way recently with the first match in the area being played between the Bridge Bar and the Golden Gate. The Bridge Bar came out tops in their match at the Golden Gate.

Michael Hughie's proved too much for John Byrne's of Cashel when they met in their match. The result was 6 - 3.

There is a change in the scoring this year over to the traditional 301.

CARDS

You can tell Christmas is approaching when the cards start. And started they have - somewhere for each night of the week. The Glenbay Hotel is the venue for Monday night and Tom Carr's is the traditional Tuesday night slot. On Wednesday there's cards at the Golden Gate and in the Bridge Bar on Thursday. McGinley's of Carrick is the venue on Friday night. The numbers aren't up to the Turkey stage yet but we hear there have been some enjoyable games recently.

Under the above title Molly Given, S.R.N. has written an article on her travels in the area in CYCLETOURING, the magazine of the Cyclists' Touring Club of June/July this year. The title of the article refers to the figures you can see on Slieve League as you view it from Meenavean. Molly stayed with Joan and James Edward Gillespie during her tour and gives a colourful account of her trips around the local roads and the hazards - sheep - which she encountered.

Congratulations to Maire and Conall Gara of Meenachannon on the arrival of a baby girl.

The Kilcar Macra na Tuaithe Club got under way recently with leaders Bridie Cunningham and Adrian Molloy. The Chairman of the club is Aidan Mulvihill.

Five of the Macra na Tuaithe Clubs in South west Donegal gathered together recently and formed a District Council of the Organization. Chairman of the Council is Brian McAuley, Carrick and the Secretary is Gordon Thurston also of Carrick. The treasurer is Fr. Peter McGlynn of Lettermacaward and the P.R.O. is Paula Callaghan of Killybegs.

A training session for leaders was held with Youth Officer John McDermott of Sligo and the following week a session was held for the club officers in Glenties Comprehensive School.

A Club exchange programme has been started and the Carrick Club has visited Lettermacaward and Glenties to have games and discos with the members of those clubs.

A regional three-day conference for the club officers will be held in Rosbeg at the beginning of December.

Congratulations to Kieran Breslin of Upper Carrick on acquiring his first car.

The job situation in the parish appears to be very promising with many of the local industrialists willing to take on new workers if they can get them. Crab production is in full swing in Heenaneary factory and Ballymoon and Kilcar factories are taking on extra workers at present. Corra Fashion is also expanding its operation.

● Congratulations to Maire and Seamus McNulty of Kilcasey on the birth of a new baby boy John Patrick.

● Congratulations to Brian Byrne of Leitir and Margaret Lyons of Glen who were married recently.

● Welcome home to Fr. McDyer who was on holiday in England recently and went in to hospital on his return. We hope he is well recovered from his hospitalisation.

● A strange story arrives on our desk from Crove. Now we get many strange stories, talk about the Streets of San Francisco! In this case the people of the verdant braes above Meenanearry were honestly going about their work of saving hay and making stacks - they are good at stacks in Crove, I'm told. Well I'm not the only one who thinks so because even the wild beasts up there have the same idea - so much so that they are not averse to taking up home in the stacks in Crove. The purpose of this whole rigmarole is to inform you of the momentous happening in the far end of the parish that a hare made its nest in Gavigan's stack recently. How about that then!

● Civil Defence classes have begun again in Carrick and Kilcar. The Carrick classes were discontinued last year owing to lack of support. It may be the same this year with numbers very low at the first few sessions.

● Have we seen the end of the big September and October fairs? It would appear that the steady decline of recent years is continuing as the number of sheep on offer in the last two months in Carrick Main Street was small indeed. The Bogagh Co-op has taken most of the sheep off the street into the more commercial and effective sphere of the mart. Prices started high this year but there was a steady decline over the past few weeks.

● A new teaching post has been advertised for Carrick National School. This is a new post created due to the increase in numbers and brings the staff of the school to 5.

● Congratulations to Peter and Rosaleen Hegarty on their recent marriage. Peter hails from Teelin while Rosaleen comes from Drimmarone.

● Recently returned from a holiday in Scotland are Andrew and Maire Service of the Carrick Guest House. Welcome back.

● Misfortune hit the family of Mickey Joe Cunningham of Largy during the week when his house was burnt to the ground. One of his children was burned slightly but otherwise all were safe. Mickey is building a new house beside the one which burned down.

BOARD MEETING

The Management Board of the Carrick Vocational School met recently for the first time in many years. The Board is composed of the Principal, parents, local representatives and Church representatives.

INTER RESULTS

The results of the Intermediate Cert examination were late in arriving this year but for the pupils of the school they were worth waiting for. Of the 16 boys who did the exam 15 passed with honours and none failed. The boys averaged 5 honours each. Out of the 19 girls 12 got honours and overall 5 students achieved 5 honours.

NEW CLASSROOMS

The new Science room and metalwork room have been put out for tender and it is hoped that work will begin on the new block very soon. There was a hold-up owing to a planning objection.

A new secretary will be appointed to the school in the near future.

 Welcome to the Spendly family to Glen from Get well wishes are extended to Kate Maire Byrne of Teelin who was in hospital recently. We hope she is recovering well.

 There was a big welcome for Peter Wojcik of Detroit who returned to the area for a short visit recently. Peter who lived with his family on the Glen Road was the first graphics artist with his brother Mark on AN LIAG. He has just finished High School and is taking a tour before he goes into further education.

 The heavy rains in early October goes some problems in the area. Carrick Main Street was flooded and Nora McGinley's Bar was a hive of activity with efforts to stem the waters! We hear there was also severe flooding in Straleel.

 There were big celebrations on the Teelin Road, Carrick recently when Kay and Frank Carr celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. Congratulations to both.

 Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Mary Parkes of Upper Carrick who has recently returned from hospital in Letterkenny.

LETTERS

Dear Sir,

In the last issue of AN LIAG it was stated that a member of Cashel National School Board of Management resigned as a result of a teacher's appointment.

As one who resigned from the Cashel School Board I wish to state that this would not refer to me as my resignation was tendered several months after a teacher's appointment and my letter to the chairman of the School Board at that time advised that my resignation was due to a personal matter.

Yours etc.
Maureen Hayes.

It was a busy time of celebrating for Maggie John Colm of Carrick and family. There were three new grandchildren for Maggie to admire. Maire had a baby boy, Gerard in August; Tess had a baby girl, Sheena on the 13th September - her own birthday, that must be something of a record; and Pauline had a baby girl in October. Besides all the above celebrations, Maggie's son Jackie and family were home on holiday from England.

Welcome home from hospital to Mrs. Kathleen Carr of Cashel, Kilcar. Kathleen spent a month in Letterkenny hospital undergoing some tests and we hear she is fine and well again.

SPORT

LOCAL BOYS IN CROKE PARK

Two local footballers were selected for the Donegal County Under 16 side which played a Dublin selection in Croke Park before the National League game between Dublin and Kerry. They were Sean Doogan of Bavin and Paddy Gavigan of Crove.

UNDER 21 GLEN TEAM TAKES TITLE

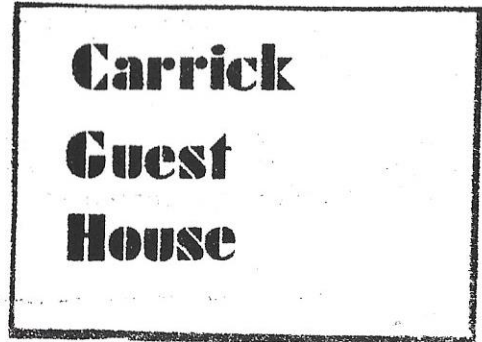

The St. Columba's Under 21 side added to the many honours the club has taken this year by winning the County Championship in Ballybofey. In a low scoring match the home side beat Ballyshannon and overcame the dreadful conditions.

JUNIOR TEAM LOSE SEMI-FINAL

St. Columba's Junior side failed to follow the example set by their senior colleagues in the semi-final of the County Junior Championship against Termon. The juniors were narrowly defeated in the match against a club which has no senior side.

SENIOR SIDE LOSE IN ALL IRELAND COMPETITION

In a grandstand finish St. Columba's, the County Champions were narrowly defeated by St. John's, Antrim County Champions. The local side seemed to have the match won when a late flurry by the visitors brought them victory and advancement to the next stage of this All-Ireland Competition.

KILCAR TAKE FR. MC GROARTY CUP

The Kilcar Senior side won the final of the Fr. McGroarty Cup by defeating the Fermanagh team Erin Gaels.

KILCAR TOP SHIELD

The Kilcar Senior team continued their reign in the top regions of the Shield by defeating the top team last week - Robert Emmetts. It was a bruising encounter but the local side came out winners in fitness and football skill. It looks like they will be certainly in the final four in the competition with 11 points achieved already.

ST. COLUMBAS FALTER IN SHIELD RACE

The Glen football team, after their early successes this year seem to be wearying if their recent Shield performances are any indication. In the three matches which they have played they have lost once, drawn once and won once. The team has not been able to field their most successful side in recent matches.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL TEAMS' MATCHES

After some very successful years in the immediate past Carrick Vocational School have hit a lean time with no great success in recent matches. The Senior team suffered the indignity of not been able to secure even a point against Glenties Comprehensive School in Glenties but their performance against the same side in Towney was a great improvement. The Under 14 have been more successful defeating Glenties and going down narrowly to Rosses Community School.
