

NUACHTLITIR NA CARRAIGE AGUS MHÍN AN AOIREAn t Ath Denis G Quinn. - 074 9739008/086 8578827.*Féile Chríost Rí B 24th/25th November 2018*Email: stcolumbascarrick@gmail.com*Thought:

Do we ever think of, or pray, the humble prayer of the tax collector, as we stood inside the door of the temple?

Lord be merciful to me a sinner.

This prayer should be constantly on our lips and in our heart.

We are living in an age where the characters of people are no longer private whether during their time on this earth or when they are deceased. At least in past times, any good deeds were reserved for a topic of conversation during the days of mourning.

It is a consoling thought that Jesus will be found our judge, because his message calls the proud to repent and assures those who despair of a new hope.

Thomas á Kempis gives us food for thought in the following saying: You are not the better because you are praised, or the worse because you are blamed, for as you are, you are, and whatever is said of you, you are not better than Almighty God, the Searcher of your heart, will testify that you are. Happy the people the Lord has chosen as his own.
